

Benchmarking LLMs

Appendix 2

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
tiiiuae/falcon-7b	Karl and Gerda	He became nasty and spiteful.	The Snow Queen had to be defeated by someone who loved Karl. Gerda loved Karl, and she was able to break the spell.	The snowman.	The kingdom of snow queen is located in the north pole. To reach there, you have to travel through the north pole.	The Snow Queen helped Gerda in finding her friend.	She took him away with her magic mirror.

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
google/flan-t5-xxl	Karl and Gerda	He became very nasty.	By crying.	a bridge	The kingdom of Snow Queen was in the North Pole. The only way to get there was by a magic sled.	Gerda's friend	The snow queen took away Karl with her by putting him in a sleigh and bringing him to her palace.

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
meta-llama/Llama -2-7b-chat-hf	Karl and Gerda.	Karl turned into a very nasty boy after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him. He snapped at Gerda and ripped two roses from her bush before running off.	Gerda's love for Karl was the key to breaking the evil spell. When she threw her arms around Karl and tears dripped onto his chest and heart, it broke the spell and Karl woke up from his long sleep	The rope. In the story, Karl and Gerda lived in two houses that were connected by a rope. The rope symbolized their friendship, as it was the only thing that connected their houses and allowed them to communicate with each other. The rope was also a reminder of the distance between their houses, as it was the only way for them to travel between the two. In addition to the rope, the story also mentioned other objects that symbolized the friendship between Karl and Gerda, such as the snowman they built together and the flowers they exchanged. However, the rope was the most significant symbol of their friendship, as it represented the connection between their houses and the way they were able to communicate with each other.	The kingdom of snow queen is located in the far north of the world, beyond the icy mountains and dark forests. It is a place of eternal winter, where the sun never rises and the only light comes from the glow of the snow and ice. To reach the kingdom of snow queen, one must travel through treacherous terrain, braving the cold and darkness, and facing the dangers that lurk in the shadows. The journey is long and arduous, but those who persevere will be rewarded with a glimpse of the queen's icy beauty and the chance to bask in her frozen radiance.	The reindeer helped Gerda in finding her friend.	She took him away with her magic.

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
meta-llama/Llama -2-7b-hf	Karl and Gerda	He became evil.	Gerda's love for Karl was so strong that it broke the spell.	The rope	The kingdom of snow queen is in the north pole.	The old woman.	She took him away with her by using her magic.

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
declare-lab/flan-a lpaca-large	Karl and Gerda.	Karl's behavior changed drastically after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him. He became very nasty and resentful.	Gerda was able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story by threw her arms round him, and teardrops dripped onto his chest and heart.	Karl and Gerda's houses were connected by a rope, which was a symbol of their friendship. The rope was made of a thick, sturdy material and was woven together with a rope that was woven around the two houses. The rope was a symbol of their friendship and the strength of their bond.	The kingdom of snow queen was located in the snowy mountains of the north of the kingdom. It was surrounded by snow and surrounded by snow-covered mountains. The kingdom was surrounded by snow-covered mountains, and the only way to reach it was by snowballs. The snowballs were able to fly through the snow and reach the kingdom.	Gerda was helped in finding her friend by her family. Her grandmother, who had been living in the area for years, had been a close friend of hers and had been helping her with her studies. Gerda was able to find her friend by contacting her family and asking for help. Her grandmother was able to help her find her friend by arranging for her to meet her in person.	Karl was taken away by the snow queen by a sledgehammer.

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
databricks/dolly-v 2-3b	Karl and Gerda. The Snow Queen is a fairy tale character from Scandinavia. She is a beautiful maiden who lives in a beautiful palace in the sky. She has a white horse and wears a white fur coat. She falls in love with a boy and changes him into a nasty person. The Snow Queen is a very popular fairy tale character. She is often used as a teaching example in schools.	The splinter of mirror caused Karl to fall asleep, and when he fell asleep, he forgot about Gerda and his past life.	The Snow Queen had made a magic mirror that reflected a look of hate as a look of love. When Gerda kissed Karl, the look of hate in the mirror broke the evil spell.	The snowman. The snowman is a traditional shape that is often associated with winter. It is a fun shape that can be easily carved from snow. It is also a shape that is easy to transport, making it a good shape to connect friends. The snowman is also a shape that is easy to carve. It is a simple shape that can be carved into many different faces. It is also a shape that can be easily melted away, making it a good shape to connect two houses that are separated by distance. The snowman is also a shape that can be easily transported. It is a shape that is light enough to be easily	The kingdom of snow queen is located in the North Pole. To get there you need to fly to the North Pole and then use a magic sled to travel over the ice.	Gerda's friend was found by a man named Hans. Hans was a farmer who lived near Gerda's village. One day, Hans saw Gerda walking in the snow and noticed that she was lost. Hans offered to take Gerda home, but Gerda refused his offer. Instead, Gerda asked Hans if he knew anyone who could help her find her friend. Hans knew of a man who lived nearby who was a smith. Hans offered to take Gerda to the smith so that the smith could help Gerda find her friend. Gerda and Hans went to the smith, who was also named Hans. The smith was a friendly man who was happy to help Gerda find her	The snow queen took away Karl with her nose. The nose is a very useful part of a creature's anatomy. It can smell, it can taste, and it can feel. It can even detect pain. The snow queen had a very strong sense of smell. She could smell the fear and panic in Karl. Karl was a very frightened mouse. He had never been away from his family for so long. He was worried about food, water, and shelter. He was also worried about the dark, the cold, and the unknown. The nose was very sensitive to all of these things. It could smell fear, and it could detect the panic in Karl. The nose was also very strong

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
meta-llama/Llama-2-70b-chat-hf	The two close friends mentioned in the story were Karl and Gerda.	After a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced Karl, he became a very nasty boy. He insulted Gerda and nobody could understand what had happened to him to cause such a change. Only Gerda still loved him, though all she got in return were insults and spite.	Gerda was able to break the evil spell on Karl by crying tears of love onto his chest and heart. This act of selfless love and friendship was able to break the curse of the Snow Queen and free Karl from her control.	A bridge.	The kingdom of snow queen was located in the farthest north of the world, where the snow never ceased to fall. It was a land of eternal winter, where the sun never rose above the horizon, and the cold was so intense that it could freeze a person's breath. The only way to reach the kingdom was by traveling through the treacherous ice caverns that surrounded it, which were filled with dangerous creatures and obstacles.	The context is a story about a girl named Gerda who is searching for her friend Kai. In the story, Gerda meets a reindeer named Snowy who helps her on her journey to find Kai. Therefore, the answer to the question is: Snowy	The snow queen took Karl with her by luring him into her sleigh with the promise of a warm, cozy place to rest.

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
tiiiuae/falcon-180B-chat	The two close friends mentioned in the story were Karl and Gerda.	Karl's behavior changed after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him because he became a very nasty boy, and nobody could understand what had happened to him to cause such a change. He snapped at Gerda and told her she was ugly, and he ripped two roses from her bush before running off.	Gerda was able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story by throwing her arms around him and crying, which caused her tears to drip onto his chest and heart. This broke the spell and caused the second cold splinter of mirror to vanish.	The object that connected Karl's and Gerda's houses was a rose bush.	The kingdom of snow queen was in the far north. To reach there, one had to travel through the snow and ice.	The Reindeer helped Gerda in finding her friend.	The snow queen came in the night and took away Karl.

Model	Who were the two close friends mentioned in the story?	How did Karl's behavior change after a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced him?	How was Gerda able to break the evil spell on Karl at the end of the story?	What object connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story?	Where was the kingdom of snow queen and how to reach there?	Who helped Gerda in finding her friend?	How the snow queen took away Karl with her?
gpt-3.5-turbo	The two close friends mentioned in the story are Karl and Gerda.	After a splinter from the shattered mirror pierced Karl, his behavior changed drastically. He turned into a very nasty boy, insulting and being spiteful towards others. He no longer showed any love or kindness, even towards his close friend Gerda.	Gerda was able to break the evil spell on Karl by embracing him and crying tears of love onto his chest and heart. This act of genuine love and compassion caused the second cold splinter of the mirror, which had pierced Karl's heart, to vanish.	The object that connected Karl's and Gerda's houses, symbolizing their friendship in the story, was a red ribbon.	The kingdom of the Snow Queen is located in the farthest north, where the snow never melts and the cold is constant. To reach the kingdom, one must travel through the vast snowy landscapes, enduring freezing temperatures and treacherous conditions. The journey requires determination, resilience, and a strong will to overcome the challenges posed by the harsh environment. It is a perilous adventure that only the most courageous and determined individuals can undertake.	The context provided does not mention who helped Gerda in finding her friend.	In the story "The Snow Queen" by Hans Christian Andersen, the Snow Queen takes away Karl by luring him with her enchanting song. Karl is a young boy who becomes fascinated by the Snow Queen's beautiful voice and follows her into her sleigh. Once Karl is in the sleigh, the Snow Queen uses her icy powers to freeze his heart and make him forget about his family and friends. She then takes him to her palace in the far north, where he becomes her prisoner.

foobar Agency

We are a software engineering and consulting firm from Munich. We help you digitize and sharpen processes by building digital tools.

foobar Agency GmbH
Ria-Burkei-Str. 25
81249 München
+49 89 452054260
contact@foobar.agency

Geschäftsführer:
Matthias Dietrich, Max Lüling
Amtsgericht München,
HRB 236637
USt.-ID: DE314751232

